Host a screening: Inspire your friends, co-workers, and community. Sign up at www.halftheskymovement.org/host-a-screening and find discussion guides and screening posters under our Resources tab.

Volunteer globally or locally. Half the Sky Movement will be featuring volunteer opportunities at organizations doing great work in the field. Visit our website at www.halftheskymovement.org/act to learn more.

Be a journalist. Use the Fast Facts and our Facebook and Twitter feeds to learn more and follow the news on women's rights. Then, write an op-ed, blog, or social media post and share with your friends and online community.

Help pay for a girl's education for one year. Through organizations like Camfed, Room to Read, and Blink Now you can fund a girl's year in school and other education projects.

Find a local organization that combats human trafficking or sex trafficking and volunteer your time. Check out this state-by-state directory by Polaris Project: www.polarisproject.org/state-map

Join or create a Dining for Women chapter to engage your local community of women on international women's rights issues.
