TITLE II—OTHER PROVISIONS

Sec. 201. Support for multilateral efforts to end violence against women and girls.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress makes the following findings:

3 (1) According to the United Nations, approxi-
4 mately 1 out of every 3 women throughout the world
5 has been beaten, coerced into sex, or otherwise
6 abused in her lifetime. The World Health Organiza-
7 tion has reported that up to 70 percent of women
8 in some countries report having been victims of do-
9 mestic violence at some stage in their lives.

10 (2) According to the United Nations, engaging 11 men and women to end violence against women and 12 girls internationally should be a priority. In recogni-
13 tion of this priority, United Nations Secretary-Gen-
14 eral Ban Ki-moon launched a multi-year campaign
15 in 2009 to end violence against women and pledge

1 resources to engage male leaders and to mobilize
2 men and boys.

3 (3) Violence against women dramatically im-
4 pedes progress in meeting all of our global health
5 goals, including efforts to stem maternal mortality
6 and the spread of HIV/AIDS. Approximately 1 in 4
7 women are abused during pregnancy, which, accord-8 ing to the World Health Organization, has been 9 linked to miscarriage, pre-term labor, low birth 10 weight, fetal distress, and death. Women who have 11 experienced violence are also at higher risk for con-
12 tracting HIV, and women living with HIV may be 13 up to 3 times more likely to experience violence than 14 other women. Fear of violence also prevents women
15 from accessing HIV/AIDS information and receiving 16 treatment and counseling.

17 (4) Increasing women's access to economic op-
18 portunities is crucial to preventing and responding 19 to domestic and sexual violence. Microfinance-based 20 interventions and increased asset control reduce lev-
21 els of intimate partner violence and provide eco-
22 nomic independence for survivors.

23 (5) Displaced, refugee, and stateless women and 24 girls in humanitarian emergencies, conflict settings,

1 and natural disasters face extreme violence and 2 threats because of power inequities, including—

3 (A) being forced to exchange sex for food 4 and humanitarian supplies; and

5 (B) being at increased risk of rape, sexual 6 exploitation, and abuse.

7 (6) Rape and sexual assault against women and 8 girls are used to torture, intimidate, and terrorize
9 women and their communities.

10 (7) According to UNICEF, child marriage—

11 (A) is a harmful practice that deprives
12 girls of their dignity and human rights;

13 (B) can result in bonded labor or enslave-
14 ment, commercial sexual exploitation, and vio-
15 lence against the victims;

16 (C) significantly increases the risk of ma-
17 ternal death and morbidity, infant mortality
18 and morbidity, obstetric fistula, and sexually 19 transmitted diseases, including HIV/AIDS; and 20 (D) is perpetuated by poverty, a lack of 21 educational or employment opportunities for 22 girls, parental concerns to ensure sexual rela-

23 tions within marriage, the dowry system, and 24 the perceived lack of value of girls.

1 SEC. 3. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

2 It is the policy of the United States to—

3 (1) systematically integrate and coordinate ef-
4 forts to prevent and respond to violence against 5 women and girls internationally into United States
6 foreign policy and foreign assistance programs;

7 (2) expand the implementation of effective prac-
8 tices and programs;

9 (3) promote women’s political, economic, edu-
10 cational, social, cultural, civil, and human rights and 11 opportunities throughout the world;

12 (4) support and build capacity of indigenous 13 nongovernmental organizations that are working to 14 prevent and respond to violence against women and 15 girls internationally, particularly women’s non-16 governmental organizations and groups involving 17 male advocates;

18 (5) support and encourage United States orga-
19 nizations working in partnership with nongovern-
20 mental organizations described in paragraph (4);

21 (6) prevent and respond to violence against 22 women and girls internationally through multise-
23 toral methods, working at individual, family, commu-
24 nity, local, national, and international levels and in-25 corporating service, prevention, training, and advo-

1 cacy activities and economic, education, health, legal,
2 and protective intervention services;

3 (7) enhance training and other prevention and 4 response to violence against women and girls inter-
5 nationally in humanitarian relief, conflict, and post-
6 conflict settings;

7 (8) enhance training by United States personnel
8 of professional foreign military and police forces and 9 judicial officials to include specific and thorough in-10 struction on preventing and responding to violence
11 against women and girls internationally;

12 (9) increase communication and cooperation
13 with nongovernmental organizations with dem-
14 onstrated experience in women's empowerment, com-
15 bating violence against women and girls internation-
16 ally, and engaging men and boys as partners, includ-
17 ing consulting with such organizations during stra-
18 tegic planning exercises;

19 (10) more regularly engage men and boys as 20 community leaders, partners, and advocates in end-
21 ing violence against women and girls;

22 (11) include—

23 (A) prevention of child marriage as an im-
24 portant part of preventing violence against 25 girls; and

1 (B) ending the practice of child marriage
2 by promoting education and skills building for 3 girls, community programs, and increased eco-4 nomic opportunities for women to achieve the 5 Millennium Development Goals and United 6 States global health and development objectives;

7 (12) ensure that private security firms con-
8 tracted for service in conflict, humanitarian, and 9 post-conflict settings appropriately report on, and re-
10 spond to, violence against women and girls inter-11 nationally; and

12 (13) continue United States leadership and in-
13 novative efforts at the United Nations to address vi-
14 olence against women and girls internationally, par-
15 ticularly through urging the United Nations Sec-
16 retary-General and United Nations member states to 17 fully implement the provisions of United Nations Se-
18 curity Council Resolutions 1325, 1820, and 1888,
